- (4) other ways as permitted by the laws and regulations

The Company's increase of capital by way of issuing new shares shall be in accordance with the laws and regulations of China and with the approval according to the procedures as required by these Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 23 Unless the laws and regulations specify otherwise, the Company's shares can be transferred freely. The Company's shares can be transferred, gifted, inherited and pledged in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company. Shares transfer need to be registered accordingly.

Article 24 Once the share is transferred, the transferee shall be listed in the Register of Shareholders as the holder of the shares.

Article 25 The issue and transfer of foreign shares listed on SEHK shall be recorded in the Register of Shareholders specified in Article 42 and kept in Hong Kong.

Article 26 Any holder of foreign shares listed on SEHK shall transfer their shares by filling in the standard transfer form specified by SEHK. The transfer form shall be signed by both the transferor and the transferee either handwritten or printed.

Article 27 The Company shall ensure that all its instruments of title of its overseas listed foreign shares shall contain the clauses below and instruct and procure its share registrar to refuse any registration for any holder subscribing, purchasing or transferring any share unless and until such holder presents a signed transfer form and a share certificate sample approved by the Board as well as containing the clauses below:

- (1) the purchaser agrees with the Company and each of its shareholders, and the Company agrees with each shareholder to observe and comply with the Company Law and other laws and regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (2) the purchaser agrees with the Company, each shareholder, Director, Supervisor and management, and the company acting on its behalf and for each shareholder, Director, Supervisor and management agree to arbitrate all the disputes and claims related to the Articles of Association of the Company, or rights or obligations specified in the Company Law and other laws and regulations pursuant to the Articles of Association of the Company, and that any reference to arbitration shall be deemed to authorize the arbitration tribunal to conduct a public hearing in open session and to publish its ruling, which shall be final and binding;
- (3) the purchaser agrees with the Company and each of its shareholders that its shares may be freely transferable;
- (4) the purchaser authorizes the Company on behalf of the purchaser to conclude an agreement with the Company's Directors and managements whereby such Directors and managements undertake to observe and fulfill their obligations to shareholders under these Articles of Association and to be responsible for the shareholders.

Chapter 4 Capital Reduction and Repurchase of Shares

Article 28 The Company may reduce its registered capital according to these Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 29 The Company shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets when reducing its registered capital.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and make a public announcement on a newspaper within 30 days as of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of register capital. A creditor shall have the right to require the Company to pay off debts or provide an appropriate guarantee to pay off debts within 30 days as of the date of receipt of the notice from the Company or within 45 days as of the date of the public announcement if not receiving the notice.

The registered capital of the Company shall not be lower than the legally required minimum amount after the reduction of capital.

Article 30 The Company may repurchase its shares upon the approval by relevant governing authorities of China and according to the procedures set forth in these Articles of Association under the circumstances below:

- (1) cancellation of shares for the purpose of reducing its capital;
- (2) merging with other companies that hold shares in the Company;
- (3) awarding shares to the employees of the Company;
- (4) shareholders objecting to resolutions of the general meeting of shareholders concerning merger or division of the Company, requiring the Company to buy their shares.

Repurchase of the Company's shares for reasons set out in Clauses (1) to (3) of this Article of these Articles of Association shall be subject to resolution at a general meeting of shareholders. After the Company has repurchased its shares in accordance with Clause (1) of this Article, such shares shall be cancelled within 10 days after repurchase, or shall be transferred or cancelled within 6 months in the circumstances set out in (2) and (4).

Shares repurchased by the Company in accordance with Clause (3) of this Article shall not exceed 5% of the total shares issued by the Company; the repurchase cost shall be covered by the after-tax profit of the Company; and the shares repurchased shall be transferred to employees within 1 year.

The Company shall not accept its own shares as the subject of pledge.

Article 31 As approved by relevant authorities, the Company may repurchase its shares by the following means:

- (1) by making a general offer to all of its shareholders for the repurchase of shares on a pro rata basis;
- (2) by open dealing on a stock exchange;
- (3) by an off-market agreement outside of the stock exchange.

Article 32 If the Company repurchases its shares by concluding an off-market agreement outside of the stock exchange, it shall obtain prior approval at the Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to the Articles of Association of the Company. Upon approval in the same matter at the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company may discharge or amend the said agreement or waive any of its rights thereunder.

The off-market agreement for the repurchase of shares referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include (but not limited to) an agreement to become obliged to repurchase and acquire the right to repurchase shares of the Company.

The Company shall not assign the agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any rights thereunder.

Article 33 As far as the Company's repurchase of its shares is concerned,

- (1) If the repurchase is not on the market or by means of bidding, the price shall not exceed a specified price ceiling;
- (2) If the repurchase is by means of bidding, proposals for bids shall be presented in the same manner to all shareholders.

Article 34 The Company shall register for the change in registered capital at the original registration authority if it cancels the shares it has repurchased in accordance with Article 30.

The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered capital.

The Company shall make a public announcement upon its deduction in capital and registration thereof.

Article 35 Unless the Company is undergoing liquidation, it shall repurchase its outstanding shares pursuant to the rules below:

- (1) whereas the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits or from the proceeds of a new issue for that purpose;
- (2) whereas the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits or from the proceeds of a new issue for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of par value shall be effected as follows:
 - (i) if the shares being repurchased are issued at par value, payment shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits;
 - (ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits or from the proceeds of a new issue for that purpose, provided that the amount paid from the proceeds of such new issue shall not exceed the aggregate amount of the premiums received by the Company on issuance of the shares so repurchased (or credit outstanding to the Company's capital reserve account) (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of such repurchase.
- (3) The Company shall make payments with its distributable profits for the following expenses:
 - (i) for acquisitions of rights to repurchase its own shares;;
 - (ii) for the variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;
 - (iii) for release from its obligations under any repurchase contract;
- (4) After the total par value of the shares that are cancelled is deducted from the Company's registered capital, the amount equal to the par value of its shares deducted from its distributable profits shall go to the Company's premium account (or capital reserve account).

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for the Purchase of the Company's Shares

Article 36 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not offer any financial assistance to anyone who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares of the Company by any means at any time. The said purchaser of shares shall include a person who directly or indirectly assumes any obligations incurred for the acquisition of such shares.

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, by any means at any time, provide any financial assistance to the said purchaser as referred to above for the purpose of limiting or discharging the obligations assumed by that person.

This Article shall not be applicable to the circumstances described in Article 38.

Article 37 The financial assistance described in this Chapter shall include but not limited to the means below:

- (1) gifts;
- (2) guarantees (including the guarantor to undertake the liability or offer assets to secure the obligor's performance of obligations), compensation (not including compensation arising out of the Company's own defaults), or release or waiver of any right;
- (3) provisions of loans or any other agreements where the Company shall fulfill the obligations prior to other parties, or changes in the said loans or parties to agreements, or the assignment of the rights under such loans or agreements;
- (4) any other financial assistance provided by the Company in the event that the Company is insolvent or possesses no net assets, or in the event that its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purpose of this Chapter, "assuming any obligations" shall include obligations assumed by contract or any arrangement (whether enforceable or unenforceable, and whether made on its own account or with any other persons) or by any other means that result in a change in financial position..

Article 38 The following cases shall be exempted from Article 36 of this Chapter:

- (1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is provided in good faith in the best interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares, or the provision of financial assistance being an incidental part to a plan;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets in the form of dividends;
- (3) the distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares or a reorganization of the share capital structure effected according to these Articles of Association;
- (5) provision of loans by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of the business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, financial assistance is provided from distributable profits);
- (6) the provision of monetary assistance for contributions to staff and workers' stock plans (provided that the net assets are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided from distributable profits).

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 39 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered forms.

In addition to the matters required by the Company Law, the share certificates of the Company shall also contain other matters required by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares are listed..

Article 40 Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. In the event that the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require the signatures of other senior managements of the Company on the share certificates, the share certificates shall also be signed by such senior managements. The share certificates shall be effective upon being affixed or printed with the seal of the Company. The share certificates shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the Board. The signatures of the Chairman of the Board or other senior managements may be printed.

Article 41 The Company shall have a register of shareholders to record the following matters:

- (1) the name (title), address (residence), occupation or nature of business of each shareholder;
- (2) the number and class of the shares of each holder;
- (3) the payment made or payable amount for the shares of each holder;
- (4) the certificate numbers of the shares of each holder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder is entered in the register as a shareholder of the Company;
- (6) the date on which each shareholder ceases to be a shareholder of the Company.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Article 42 The Company may maintain the register of shareholders outside China and appoint an overseas agent to manage the register of shareholders in accordance with the memorandum of understanding or agreement concluded between securities regulatory authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities. The original register of shareholders for foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

A duplicate copy of the register of shareholders for the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall at all times ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate copy of the register of shareholders.

In the event of any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate copy of the register of shareholders for overseas-listed foreign shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 43 The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include:

- (1) the register of shareholders that is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers described in Clause (2) and Clause (3) below);
- (2) the register of shareholders in respect of the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares that is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed;

(3) the registers of shareholders that are maintained in such other places as the Board of Directors may consider necessary for the purpose of listing the Company's shares.

Article 44 Parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuous period of such registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

Amendments to, or correction to, any part of the register of shareholders, shall be made in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where such part of the register is maintained.

Article 45 All fully paid overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong may be freely transferred without any lien.

Article 46 Within 30 days from the date of Shareholders' Meeting or 5 days from the record date for the Company's distribution of dividends, no change shall be made in the register of shareholders as a result of transfer of shares .

Article 47 When the Company calls for a Shareholders' Meeting, distributes its dividends, conducts liquidation or executes any other act requiring identification of shareholders, the Board shall fix the share registration date, at the end of which the shareholders in the register shall be shareholders of the Company.

Article 48 Any person who objects to the register of shareholders and claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an amendment of the register.

Article 49 For any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company, if his share certificate (hereinafter, "original share certificate") is lost, he may apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (hereinafter, the "Relevant Shares"). Unless the Company is certain that the original share certificate is destroyed, it shall not issue any new share certificate to replace the original one.

Applications for a replacement share certificate by shareholders of domestic shares shall be addressed pursuant to Article 150 of the Company Law.

Applications for a replacement share certificate by holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be addressed pursuant to the laws, the rules of the stock exchange, or other relevant regulations of the jurisdiction in which the original register of shareholders for overseas-listed foreign shares is maintained.

With respect to holders of foreign shares listed in Hong Kong who have lost their share certificates and file an application to the Company for a new share certificate, it shall be handled in compliance with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form along with a notarization or a statutory declaration stating the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss. Moreover, the applicant shall declare that no other person shall be entitled to have his name entered into the register of shareholders with respect to the Relevant Shares.
- (2) The Company shall not have received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered into the register of shareholders with respect to such shares prior to the issue of a replacement share certificate to the applicant.

- (3) In the event that the Company intends to issue a replacement share certificate to an applicant, it shall publish an announcement of such intention at least once every 30 days within a period of 90 days in the newspaper as prescribed by the Board.
- (4) Prior to its publication, the Company shall deliver, to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of aforementioned announcement. The Company may publish the announcement upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange confirming the announcement has been exhibited on the premises of said stock exchange. Such announcement shall be exhibited on the premises of the stock exchange for a period of 90 days.

In case an application for a replacement share certificate is made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver, by mail, to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.
- (5) Upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in the Clauses (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company may issue the replacement share certificate to the applicant in the event that the Company has not received any objections from any person with respect to the issuance of a replacement share certificate.
- (6) When the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the provisions of this Article, it shall cancel the original share certificate and record the cancellation of said original share certificate, along with the issuance of the replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of the original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant, and the Company shall have the right to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant.
- (8) The newspaper or magazine for publishing the public announcement in Clauses (3) shall include at least one Chinese and one English newspaper or magazine issued in Hong Kong.

Article 50 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to these Articles of Association, as for a bona fide purchaser obtaining the new share certificate referred to above or a shareholder registered as a owner of the relevant shares (in case of a bona fide purchaser), his name (title) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 51 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate, unless the said person claiming damage proves that the Company has committed a fraud.

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 52 The shareholders of the Company refer to the legal holders of shares of the Company, whose names (titles) are registered in the register of shareholders of the Company.

The shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations on the basis of the class and amount of shares held. Shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

Article 53 When over 2 persons are registered as the joint shareholders, they shall be deemed as the joint shareholders of such shares, and shall be subject to the following provisions:

- (1) the Company may not register more than 4 persons as joint shareholders for any share;
- (2) the joint shareholders shall jointly or individually assume the responsibility for amounts of fees payable for relevant shares;
- (3) in the event that any shareholder among the joint shareholders deceases, only the other remaining shareholders of the joint shareholders shall be deemed as the joint owners of the relevant shares. However, the Board has the right to require the presentation of the proper death certificate of the deceased;
- (4) Among the joint shareholders of any shares, only the shareholder that is listed first in the register of shareholders shall be entitled to receive the share certificate of the relevant shares, to receive notices, and to attend the general meeting of shareholders and enjoy full voting power of the relevant shares. Any notice received by such shareholder shall be deemed as having been served to all fellow joint shareholders.

Article 54 The Company's shareholders of ordinary shares shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) the right to receive dividends and other distributions proportional to the number of shares held;
- (2) the right to attend Shareholders' Meeting either in person or by proxy and exercise the voting right;
- (3) the right to supervise, advise or inquire the operating activities of the Company;
- (4) the right to transfer, bestow, or pledge the shares held according to laws and regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (5) the right to be provided with relevant information in accordance with provisions of the Articles of Association, including:
 - (A) to obtain a copy of these Articles of Association, subject to payment of the cost;
 - (B) to inspect and to make duplicate copies, subject to payment at a reasonable charge, of the followings:
 - (i) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (ii) personal profiles of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements including:
 - (a) their present and former names and aliases;
 - (b) their principal addresses (residence);
 - (c) their nationalities;
 - (d) their full-time and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (e) their identification documents and the numbers thereof.
 - (iii) report(s) on the Company's share capital;
 - (iv) report(s) showing the aggregate par value, number, maximum and minimum price paid with respect to each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last financial year, and the aggregate amount incurred by the Company for this purpose;

(v) minutes of Shareholders' Meeting;

- (6) the right to receive distribution of the remaining assets proportional to the number of shares held when the Company dissolves or liquidates;
- (7) other rights conferred by the laws and regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

The Company shall not otherwise stay or infringe any rights attached to any shares on the sole basis that the holders of such shares with direct or indirect interests in such shares have failed to disclose the said interests to the Company.

Article 55 If any shareholder needs to access the relevant information as set out in the preceding article, the said shareholder shall provide the Company with written documents bearing evidence of the type and number of shares held by the said shareholder, and the Company will provide the said information as required by the said shareholder upon authentication of the said shareholder.

Article 56 The shareholders of ordinary shares shall assume the following obligations:

- (1) to observe the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (2) to effect payment for the subscription of shares according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of contribution;
- (3) to assume other obligations as the laws and regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company require.

Shareholders are not liable to further contribution to the share capital other than such terms as agreed upon by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 57 Besides the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights with respect to the following matters in a manner that is prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders, collectively or individually:

- (1) to relieve a Director or Supervisor from liability to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to allow the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of other person(s)), in any manner, of the Company's assets, including (but not limited to) any opportunities deemed beneficial to the Company;
- (3) to allow the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of other person(s)) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) the rights to distributions and vote (except pursuant to a restructuring proposed to shareholders for approval at a Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association).

Article 58 The controlling shareholder as described in Article 57 refers to the holder of over 50% of the Company's shares, or less than 50% but whose right to vote may substantially affect the decision made at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Chapter 8 Shareholders' Meeting

Article 59 Shareholders' Meeting shall be the authoritative body of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with the law.

Article 60 Shareholders' Meeting shall possess the following functions and powers:

- (1) to decide on the Company's operational policies and its investment plans;
- (2) to elect and replace Directors and to decide on the matters relating to the remuneration of Directors;
- (3) to elect and replace shareholders' representative Supervisors, and decide on matters relating the remuneration of the relevant Supervisors;
- (4) to examine and approve reports of the Board of Directors;
- (5) to examine and approve reports of the Board of Supervisors;
- (6) to examine and approve the Company's proposed annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
- (7) to examine and approve the Company's profit distribution and loss recovery plans;
- (8) to decide on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (9) to decide on the issuance of debentures by the Company;
- (10) to decide on such matters as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (11) to decide on the engagement, dismissal or non-reappointment of the Company's accounting firm;
- (12) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (13) to consider any motions raised by shareholders who hold 5% or more of the voting shares of the Company
- (14) to decide on any other matters as the laws and regulations and the Article of Association of the Company specify.

Article 61 The Company shall not conclude an agreement to transfer the management of all or important parts of its business to others except Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements without prior approval at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 62 The Shareholders' Meeting shall include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meetings shall be held once every year, and within 6 months of the end of the preceding financial year..

The Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months under any of the following circumstances:

(1) when the number of directors is less than that required by the Company Law or is less than two thirds of the numbers required by the Articles of Association;

(2) when the Company fails to recover the loss amounting to over one third of the share capital;

(3) when shareholder(s), individually or jointly, holding 10% or more of the Company's issued and outstanding shares carrying voting rights request(s) in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;

(4) when deemed necessary by the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors motions to call an extraordinary general meeting;

(5) when the accounting firm the Company appointed calls an extraordinary general meeting pursuant to Article 178 of the Articles of Association of the Company;

(6) when over 2 independent Directors motion to call an extraordinary general meeting.

The Board of Directors shall convene the Shareholders' Meeting. If the Board of Directors is unable or fails to convene the Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Supervisors shall call and preside over it; if the Board of Supervisors fails to do so, the shareholder(s) independently or jointly holding 10% of the Company's shares for over 90 days may convene and preside over the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 63 When the Company convenes the Shareholders' Meeting, written notices of the meeting shall be provided in no less 45 days prior to the date of the meeting (but not more than 60 days) to notify all the shareholders registered in the register of shares with respect to the matters to be considered, and the date and the place of the meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the meeting shall deliver his written reply concerning his attendance in no less than 20 days before the date of the meeting.

The day when the notification is sent and the meeting is held shall not be counted towards the period of the notification.

The shareholder(s), individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's total shares shall have the right to submit motions to the Board of Directors 10 days before the Shareholders' Meeting; The Board shall inform other shareholders within 2 days as of receiving such motions and present the motion at the Shareholders' Meeting for consideration.

The content of an extraordinary motion shall be under the functions and powers of the Shareholders' Meeting and have a clear subject and specific matters for consideration.

Article 64 Motions not set out in the notice of Shareholders' Meeting shall not be voted on or resolved at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 65 The Company shall, based on the written replies received from shareholders, calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting 20 days prior to the date of the general meeting of shareholders. In the event that the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting represents one half or more of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting. If otherwise, then the Company shall, within 5 days, notify the shareholders again by public notice of the matters to be considered, and the place and the date for the meeting. The Company may hold the meeting following the publication of such notice.

Article 66 The notification of the Shareholders' Meeting shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) specifying time, date and place of the meeting;
- (3) set out the date of registration of shareholders who are entitled to attend the meeting;
- (4) list the name(s) and telephone number(s) of the contact person(s) for the meeting;
- (5) describe matters for consideration at the meeting;
- (6) provide such necessary information and explanations for shareholders to make an informed judgment on the matters to be considered. Without limitation to the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made with respect to the merger of the Company with another company, the repurchase of shares, the restructuring of share capital, or the restructuring of the Company in any other manner, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail along with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the reason(s) and effect of such proposal must be properly explained.
- (7) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any Director, Supervisor, the General Manager, or other senior managements in the proposed transaction and the effect of the transaction in their capacity as shareholders to the extent that it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (8) contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be passed at the meeting;
- (9) Stating clearly that a shareholder is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, and to appoint 1 or more proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and that a proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (10) specify the time and place for delivering proxy forms for the relevant meeting.

Article 67 Notice of general meeting of shareholders shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not entitled to vote at the meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid mail to their addresses as shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of domestic shares, notices of the general meeting may also be issued by way of public announcements.

The public announcement as referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in 1 or more national newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council within 45 days to 50 days prior to the date of the meeting. Upon publication of such announcements, the holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice for the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 68 After the notification of the Shareholders' Meeting is sent out, the Board of Directors shall not change the date of the meeting, unless force majeure events or other accidents occur. If the date of the meeting needs to be changed due to force majeure events, the share registration date shall remain the same.

Article 69 An accidental failure to serve notice of a meeting on, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions passed.

Article 70 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be entitled to appoint to entrust one or several persons (whether a shareholder or otherwise) as his proxy/proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. A proxy so appointed shall:

- (1) have the right to speak at the meeting;
- (2) be entitled to demand, individually or jointly with others, a poll;
- (3) be entitled to vote by hand or on a poll, but in the event that more than 1 proxy is so appointed, such proxies may only vote on a poll.

In the event that a shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House or its agent in accordance with the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571), it may, as it sees fit, appoint 1 or more persons as its proxy to attend and vote at any general meeting of shareholders or class meeting. However, in the event that more than 1 person is so appointed, the proxy instrument shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. Such proxies may exercise the rights of such Recognized Clearing House on its behalf in the same manner as if it were an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 71 The proxy instrument shall be in writing, either to be executed by the appointer or by power of attorney. Should the appointer be a legal entity, then such proxy instrument shall be executed with the company seal or by its Directors or the legal representative. Such instrument shall specify the number of shares represented by the proxy. In the event that more than 1 person is appointed as a proxy by a shareholder, the proxy instrument shall specify the number of shares represented by each proxy.

Article 72 The proxy instrument shall be maintained at the residence of the Company or at such other locations as specified for that purpose in the notice regarding the convening of the meeting in no less than 24 hours prior to the time of the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote, or the time appointed for voting. In the event that such instrument is signed by another person authorized by the appointer, the authorization or other authorization instrument shall be notarized, and such notarized authorization or other instrument shall be maintained at the residence of the Company or at such other locations as specified for that purpose in the notice regarding the convening of the meeting at the same time.

In the event that an appointer is a legal entity, its legal representative or such person as authorized by a resolution of its Board of Directors or other governing body may attend the Company's general meeting in the capacity of a representative.

Article 73 Any form issued to a shareholder by the Board of Directors for the appointment of a proxy by the shareholder for attendance and voting at a meeting shall enable the shareholder to instruct the proxy to vote for or against each resolution with respect to businesses transacted at the meeting. Such forms shall contain a statement which states that, in the absence of instructions by the shareholder, the proxy may vote in the proxy's own discretion.

- Article 74 A vote provided in according to the instruments in such proxy forms shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the appointer or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares with respect to which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such matters shall have been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.
- Article 75 If the shareholder attend the Shareholders' Meeting in person, the shareholder shall show his proof of identity and share certificate; if the shareholder appoint a proxy to attend the meeting, the proxy shall show his proof of identity, proxy form and share certificate; if a legal entity as a shareholder (except the Recognized Clearing House or its agent) appoints a proxy to attend the meeting, the proxy shall show his proof of identity, proxy form issued by the legal entity and share certificate;
- Article 76 There are 2 kinds of resolutions made at the Shareholders' Meeting, ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.
- An ordinary resolution must be approved by votes representing more than one-half of the voting rights of the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.
- A special resolution must be approved by the votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.
- The shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting shall clearly indicate they are for or against every matter for review, or abstaining from voting.
- Article 77 When voting at the general meeting of shareholders, a shareholder (including proxies) may exercise voting rights according to the number of shares carrying the right to vote. Each share shall have 1 vote. However, the Company has no voting right for the shares it holds.
- When voting, the shareholders (including proxies) shall observe any special right or limitation attached to shares of any class.
- Article 78 At the general meeting of shareholders, resolutions shall be decided by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded (before or after any vote by show of hands):
- (1) by the chairman of the meeting;
 - (2) by at least 2 shareholders entitled to vote present in person or by proxy;
 - (3) by 1 or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing 10% or more of all shares carrying the right to vote, individually or jointly, at the meeting.
- Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed upon a show of hands, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution.
- The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such demand.

- Article 79 A poll demanded for the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on the adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business, other than that upon which a poll has been demanded, may be preceded pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting on which the poll was demanded.
- The voting results shall be announced at the site.
- Article 80 At a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to 2 or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same manner.
- Article 81 In the case of an equal number of votes, whether by a show of hands or at a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to cast one additional vote.
- Article 82 The following matters shall be resolved by ordinary resolutions at the Shareholders' Meeting:
- (1) reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
 - (2) any plans for the distribution of profits and for recovering losses formulated by the Board of Directors;
 - (3) removal of the members of the Board of Directors and Supervisors on behalf of shareholders, and decision on their remuneration and methods of payment;
 - (4) preliminary and final annual budgets, balance sheets, profit accounts, and other financial statements of the Company;
 - (5) other matters other than those required by laws, administrative regulations, or by the Articles of Association to be approved by a special resolution.
- Article 83 The following matters shall be resolved by special resolutions at the Shareholders' Meeting:
- (1) the increase or reduction in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
 - (2) the issue of debentures of the Company;
 - (3) the division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
 - (4) the changes to the Company's scope of business;
 - (5) the amendments to the Articles of Association;
 - (6) the Company's acquisition or disposal of major assets or providing guarantees within 1 year with the transaction amount exceeding 30% of the total assets of the Company;
 - (7) other matters that ordinary resolutions have been made at the Shareholders' Meeting indicating that resolutions regarding such matters will substantially impact the Company and such matters need to be passed by special resolutions;
 - (8) other matters that shall be passed by special resolutions in accordance with the laws and regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 84 When requesting the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting, it shall be handled according to the following procedures:

(1) Shareholder(s), individually or jointly holding an aggregate of 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting shall sign 1 or more written requests of the same form stating the object of the meeting and requesting that the Board of Directors convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting thereof. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary or a class general meeting responsively after receipt of such request. The aforesaid amount of shareholding is calculated as on the day when the shareholders make the request in writing.

(2) If the Board of Directors fails to send notification of the meeting within 30 days from the date of the receipt of such request, the Board of Supervisors shall call and preside over the meeting; if the Board of Supervisors fails to do so either, the shareholder(s), individually or jointly holding over 10% or more of voting shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days may call the meeting within 4 months of the date of the receipt of such request by the Board of Directors, and the procedures for calling the meeting shall remain as the Board of Directors would call the meeting.

Where shareholders convene a meeting due to the failure by the Board of Directors to duly convene the same, all reasonable expenses so incurred shall be reimbursed by the Company, and any sum so reimbursed shall be set-off against such sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.

Article 85 The Company's Chairman of Board of Directors shall preside over the Shareholders' Meeting; if the Chairman fails to do so, the Vice Chairman shall preside over the Shareholders' Meeting; if the Vice President fails to do so either, a Director designated by over half the Directors shall preside over the Shareholders' Meeting. In the event that no chairman of the meeting is so designated, the attending shareholders shall elect 1 of the directors to act as the chairman of the meeting. In the event that, for any reasons, the shareholders fail to elect a chairman, then the shareholder holding the largest number of the voting shares present in person or by proxy shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 86 If any Director, Supervisor, General Manager or senior managements is required to present at the Shareholders' Meeting, they shall attend the meeting and accept inquiries from shareholders.

The Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or senior managements shall reply to or provide explanations to the inquiries from shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, unless commercial secrets are involved.

Article 87 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed, and such decision shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes thereof.

Article 88 When a connected transaction is considered at a general meeting, the connected shareholders shall not vote, and the voting shares held by them shall not be counted in the total number of shares with voting rights; the announcement of any resolution made at the general meeting shall adequately disclose information relating to voting by non-connected shareholders. If the connected shareholders cannot avoid the voting under special circumstances, the voting may proceed in compliance with the usual procedures upon approval from the relevant authorities, and details of such circumstances shall be adequately disclosed in the announcement of the resolution.

Article 89 If the GEM Listing Rules of SEHK requires any shareholder to waive the right to vote or restrict the shareholder to vote only for or against a certain resolution and the said shareholder violates such rules, the vote by the said shareholder shall not be counted towards the voting results.

In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the voting result of any resolution at Shareholders' Meeting, the chairman shall have the power to have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting does not have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy, who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting, may immediately following the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

If the votes are counted at the Shareholders' Meeting, the counting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 90 Resolutions passed at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be recorded in the meeting minutes, the chairman of the meeting and Directors present at the meeting shall sign the meeting minutes, which shall record the following matters:

(1) the number of the Company's voting shares present at the Shareholders' Meeting, and the percentage as compared to the Company's total number of shares;

(2) date and place of the Shareholders' Meeting;

(3) name of the chairman of the meeting, and the agenda of the meeting;

(4) main points of the speech of each speaker on matters for consideration;

(5) voting results of each matter for consideration at the meeting;

(6) opinions and inquiries from shareholders and replies or explanations from the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;

(7) other matters that shall be recorded in the meeting minutes in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company and the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Directors present at the Shareholders' Meeting shall sign the meeting minutes.

The meeting minutes, signature record of shareholders present at the meeting and proxy forms shall be kept at the Company's residence.

The above said meeting minutes, signature record and proxy forms shall not be destroyed for 10 years.

Article 91 Copies of the minutes of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be open for inspection by any shareholder free of charge during the business hours of the Company. In the event that a shareholder requests a copy of such minutes from the Company, the Company shall send the copy to such shareholder within 7 days upon the receipt of reasonable fees thereof.

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for the Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 92 Shareholders who hold different classes of shares shall be known as class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall be entitled to rights and assume obligations according to the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 93 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders in the capacity of shareholders (“class rights”) may not be varied or abrogated unless approved by a special resolution of shareholders at a general meeting, and by the class shareholders so affected at a separate meeting conducted according to Articles 95 to 99.

Article 94 The following circumstances shall be deemed as a variation or abrogation of rights of a class shareholder:

- (1) an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class, or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of another class having voting rights or distribution rights or other privileges equal to or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) the conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into the shares of another class or the conversion or creation of a right of conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;
- (3) the removal or reduction of rights to receive accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends attached to the shares of such class;
- (4) the reduction or removal of the preferential rights attached to the shares of such class for the receipt of dividends or for the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
- (5) the addition, removal or reduction of the rights of conversion, options rights, voting rights, transfer rights, pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to the shares of such class;
- (6) the removal or reduction of the rights to receive payment receivable from the Company in the particular currencies attached to the shares of such class;
- (7) the creation of a new class of shares having voting rights or distribution rights or other privileges equal to or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (8) the restriction of the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class or the imposition of stricter restrictions thereof;
- (9) the issue of any rights to subscribe for, or to convert into, shares in the Company of the same class or another class;
- (10) the enhancement of rights or privileges of the shares of other classes;
- (11) the restructuring of the Company pursuant to which shareholders of different classes assume disproportionate liability;
- (12) the revision or abrogation of the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 95 The class shareholders so affected, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote at a general meeting of shareholders, shall nevertheless be entitled to vote at any class meetings with respect to matters set forth in Clauses (2) to (8), (11) to (12) of the preceding Article, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote in class meetings.

“(An) interested shareholder(s)” as used in the preceding paragraph, shall mean:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by offers to all shareholders of the Company or by open dealing on a stock exchange pursuant to Article 31 of these Articles of Association, a “controlling shareholder” as defined in Article 58;

- (2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement pursuant to Articles 31 of these Articles of Association, a holder of the shares to which the proposed agreement relates;
- (3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder who assumes less liability than any shareholders of the same class or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interests of shareholders of the same class.

Article 96 A resolution in a class meeting shall be passed by votes representing two-thirds or more of the voting rights of shareholders of that class in the relevant meeting who are entitled to vote at the class meetings according to Article 95.

Article 97 A written notice of a class meeting shall be given 45 days prior to the date of the class meeting to notify all of the registered shareholders of such class of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the class meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the class meeting shall deliver his written reply for the attendance at the meeting 20 days prior to the date of the meeting..

In the event that the shareholders who intend to attend such a meeting represent more than half of the total number of voting shares of that class, the Company may hold the class meeting; otherwise, the Company shall within 5 days notify the shareholders of the class, again by public notice, of the matters to be considered as well as the date and place for the class meeting. The Company may then hold the class meeting after the publication of such notice.

Article 98 Notice of class meetings need only be served on those shareholders entitled to vote at class meetings.

Meetings of any class of shareholders shall be conducted in as similar a manner as that of Shareholders’ Meeting. The provisions of these Articles of Association relating to the manner of conducting any Shareholders’ Meeting shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.

Article 99 Except for other class of shareholders, shareholders of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares are deemed to be shareholders of different classes. Shareholders of domestic shares and non-listed foreign shares shall not be deemed to be shareholders of different classes.

The special procedures for approval by class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (1) where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders at a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every 12 months, not more than 20% of each of its existing issued domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares;
- (2) where the Company’s plan to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within 15 months from the date of approval of the securities regulatory authority under the State Council.

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 100 The Company shall establish a Board of Directors consisting of 17 directors. The Board of Directors shall have 1 Chairman and 1 Vice Chairman.

Members of the Board include executive directors, non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors (“independent directors”), who all shall have the qualifications pursuant to relevant laws and regulations. The number of independent directors is at least one third of the total members of the board.

Article 101 The Directors shall be elected at the Shareholders’ Meeting for a term of 3 years. At the expiration of a Director’ s term, the term shall be renewable upon re-election.

If the clauses below are applicable, the Director may resign before the term of office expires. The director shall submit a resignation in writing to the Board. If the resignation in writing has a date when the resignation goes into effect, it shall be the date when the resignation becomes effective; if the resignation in writing does not have a date, the resignation shall go into effect as soon as the Company receives the resignation in writing.

If the number of Directors is lower than two thirds of the number as required by the Articles of Association of the Company or lower than the lowest number as required by the Company Law due to the Directors resigning, the resignation shall go into effect after the new Directors are elected to fill the vacancy.

If the above stated case happens, the Board shall call the Shareholders’ Meeting as soon as possible to elect new Directors to fill the vacancy.

The Shareholders’ Meeting may remove any Director whose term of office has not expired in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. (However, any claim based on the contracts shall be exempted from it.)

A written notice of the intention of nominating the candidate for director and by that candidate indicating his acceptance of such nomination shall be given to the Company no earlier than the date of the notice of the general meeting of shareholders but no later than 7 days before the holding of the said general Shareholders’ Meeting.

The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board shall be elected and removed by over half of the directors, and terms of office of both the Chairman and Vice Chairman is 3 years, who may be re-elected and re-appointed as their terms of office expire.

The Directors shall not have to hold shares of the Company.

The Directors (except for the independent directors) may be appointed as General Manager or other senior management (except for the Supervisor).

Article 102 The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the shareholders at general meetings, and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

(1) to be responsible for the convening of and reporting to the Shareholders Meeting;

(2) to implement the resolutions passed by the Shareholders’ Meeting;

(3) to determine the Company’ s business plans and investment proposals;

(4) to formulate the Company’ s preliminary and final annual financial budgets;

(5) to formulate the Company’ s profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposal;

(6) to make plans for the Company’s increasing or decreasing its registered capital and issuing bonds;

(7) to formulate plans for the Company’s merger, division, changing of forms and dissolution;

(8) to decide on the Company’s internal management structure;

(9) to appoint or remove the Company's General Manager and secretary to the Board of Directors, and to engage or remove the Company's deputy general manager, person(s) in charge of the finance department, other senior management and senior directors according to the nomination of the General Manager, and to decide on their remuneration and payment method;

(10) to formulate the Company's basic management system;

(11) to formulate proposals for any amendment to the Company's Articles of Association;

(12) to formulate plans for the Company's acquisition or sale of major assets;

(13) in compliance with the relevant laws and regulations, to exercise the Company's right to finance and loan as well as mortgage, rent, contract for or transfer the Company's major assets and authorizing General Manager and Vice General Manager to exercise the foregoing rights within certain scope;

(14) to propose at the Shareholders' Meeting the engagement or replacement of an accounting firm for the audit of the Company's accounts;

(15) to exercise any other functions and powers conferred upon by the Shareholders' Meeting and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Resolutions regarding Clause (6), Clause (7) and Clause (11) above shall be passed by over two thirds of the total number of the Directors, and resolutions in relation to the rest of the circumstances above shall be passed by over half of the total number of the Directors.

The Board may exercise any power that the Articles of Association of the Company does not provide for the Shareholders' Meeting to exercise. The Board shall observe the Articles of Association of the Company and rules made by the Shareholders' Meeting from time to time; however they will not invalidate the Board's previous valid actions.

Article 103 With respect to any proposed disposal of any fixed assets, and in the event that the estimated amount of such disposal together with the amount received from any other disposal of fixed assets occurring in 4 months prior to such proposed disposal exceed 33% of the amount of fixed assets shown on the latest balance sheet discussed at the Shareholders' Meeting, such disposal shall be subject to the approval at the Shareholders' Meeting; and the Board of Directors shall not dispose or agree to dispose such fixed assets prior to the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting.

"Disposal of fixed asset" referred to in this Article shall include the transfer of certain interests in assets, but excludes any provision of any security with any fixed assets.

The validity of any disposal by the Company of its fixed assets shall not be affected by the violation of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 104 The Chairman of the Board shall exercise the following powers and functions:

(1) to preside over Shareholders' Meeting and to convene and preside over meetings of the Board of Directors;

(2) to inspect the implementation of resolutions passed by the Directors at the meetings of the Board of Directors;

(3) to sign the certificates of any securities issued by the Company;

(4) to sign any material documents of the Company or appoint one or more Directors to sign other important documents of the Company with letters of authorisation;

(5) to exercise the functions and powers of a legal representative;

(6) in the event of an occurrence of any severe natural disaster or any other force majeure event, to exercise his special power of disposition in compliance with the legal provisions and in the interests of the Company and report to the Board and the Shareholders' Meeting afterwards;

(7) to Exercise other powers and functions conferred upon by the Board.

If the Chairman of the Board fails to exercise the powers and functions, the Vice Chairman shall exercise; if the Vice Chairman fails to do so either, one Director shall be designated to exercise such powers and functions by over half the number of the Directors.

Article 105 The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall call at least 2 regular meetings every year.

Shareholders holding more than 10% of voting rights in shares, one third of the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors may request to call an extraordinary meeting of the Board. The Chairman shall call and preside over such a meeting within 10 days from receipt of the request.

The reasonable costs for the Directors present at the meetings of the Board of Directors shall be borne by the Company, which includes transportation expenses for the Directors to travel to the place of the meeting (if different from where the directors resides), cost of accommodation and food during the course of the meeting, rent of the meeting venue and local transportation expenses, etc.

Article 106 If the dates and places of the regular meetings of the Board of Directors have been decided by the Board of Directors in advance, no notifications need to be sent. If the dates and places of the regular meetings of the Board of Directors have not been decided by the Board of Directors in advance, the Chairman of the Board shall require the Secretary to the Board to notify all the Directors and Supervisors of the dates and places within 10 to 30 days before the meeting by telex, telegraph, fax, express delivery or delivery by hand.

If an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors is called, the Chairman of the Board shall require the Secretary to notify all the Directors and Supervisors of the date and place as well as the mode of the meeting within 5 to 10 days before the convening of meeting by telex, telegraph or delivery by hand.

The notification shall be both in Chinese and English, containing the agenda and subjects of the meeting. Any Director may waive the right to be notified of the meetings of the Board of Directors.

Should a Director attend a meeting, and has not stated his non-receipt of the meeting notice prior to arriving at the onset of the meeting or at the meeting, the said notice of the meeting shall be deemed to have been served.

Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by telephone conference or similar communication equipment so long as all Directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other. All such Directors shall be deemed to be personally present at the meeting.

Article 107 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held only if more than half of the Directors (including any alternative Director so appointed) are present.

Each director shall have 1 vote. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, a resolution of the Board of Directors must be passed by the majority of the Directors of the Company.

Where there is an equality of votes cast both for and against a resolution, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to cast an additional vote.

Article 108 Where a Director or any of his associate(s) has material interests in the subject matter of the meeting, such Director may attend the meeting and state his views, but shall not vote on the matter or appoint another Director to vote for him nor his presence be counted in the quorum; if such Director does not attend the meeting, he shall not authorize another Director to vote on the matter on his behalf.

The meeting of the Board of Directors may be held when more than half of the non-connected Directors attend the meeting. The resolution of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be passed by more than half of the non-connected Directors. If the number of non-connected Directors attending the meetings is less than 3, the matter shall be submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for consideration.

The first paragraph of this Article shall not be applicable to the following matters:

- (1) any contract or arrangement entered into for the giving of any security or indemnity to the Director or his associate(s) in respect of money lent or obligations incurred or undertaken by him or any of them at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; or
- (2) any contract or arrangement entered into in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries for which the Director or his associate(s) has himself / themselves assumed responsibility in whole or in part and whether alone or jointly under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security; or
- (3) any contract or arrangement concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the Company or any other company which the Company may promote or be interested in for subscription or purchase where the Director or his associate(s) is/are or is/are to be interested as a participant in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of the offer;
- (4) any contract or arrangement in which the director or his associate(s) is/are interested in the same manner as other holders of shares or debentures or other securities of the issuer by virtue only of his/their interest in shares or debentures or other securities of the issuer;
- (5) any contract or arrangement concerning any other company in which the Director or his associate(s) is/are interested only, whether directly or indirectly, as an officer or executive or shareholder or in which the director or his associate(s) is/are beneficially interested in shares of that company, provided that the Director and any of his associates are not in aggregate beneficially interested in 5% or more of the issued shares of any class of such company (or of any third company through which his interest or that of any of his associates is derived) or of the voting rights; or
- (6) any proposal or arrangement concerning the adoption, modification or operation of a share option scheme, a pension fund or retirement, death or disability benefits scheme which relates both to Directors, his associate(s) and employees of the issuer or any of its subsidiaries and does not provide in respect of any director, or his associate(s), as such any privilege or advantage not generally accorded to the class of persons to which such scheme or fund relates.

The associate(s) referred to above shall have the same meaning as in the GEM Listing Rules of SEHK.

Article 109 When over one fourth of the Directors or over 2 independent Directors are of the view that the materials of the matters being considered at the meeting of Board of Directors are insufficient or not fully explained, they may jointly motion to postpone the meeting of Board of Directors or postpone the consideration of part of the matters, which shall be adopted by the Board.

Article 110 Directors shall personally attend the meetings of the Board of Directors. In the event that a Director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he may appoint another Director by a written power of attorney to attend the meeting on his behalf. The power of attorney shall set out the scope of the authorization.

A Director appointed as a representative of another Director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a Director within the scope of authority conferred upon by the appointing Director. In the event that a Director is unable to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors, and has not appointed a representative to attend such meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at such meeting.

The representative appointed shall also be a Director. When the number of Directors presenting is counted, the representative and the Director he represents shall both be taken into account; Such Director shall not have to vote for or against in the same manner with all his votes. The appointing Director shall inform the Company if he terminates such appointment.

Article 111 The Board of Directors shall maintain minutes of resolutions passed at meetings of the Board of Directors. The minutes shall be signed by all the Directors present at the meeting and the person who recorded the minutes. The Directors shall assume liability for any resolutions of the Board of Directors. In the event that a resolution of the Board of Directors violates laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association resulting in the Company suffering serious loss, the directors who voted in favor of such a resolution shall compensate the Company for such loss. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, in the event that it can be proven that a Director has expressly objected to such resolution in voting, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such Director shall be duly released from such liability.

The minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors shall be kept at the residence of the Company for at least 10 years.

Article 112 With respect to any matters that are required to be passed by an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors and, in the event that such resolution has been distributed in person, by mail, by telegraph or by fax to all the members of the Board of Directors, and in the event that the number of the Directors who have signed the resolution has reached the threshold, an effective resolution shall be passed accordingly, and no meeting of the Board of Directors is required to be convened.

Chapter 11 Secretary to the Board of Directors

Article 113 The Company shall have a Secretary to the Board of Directors, who shall belong to the senior managements of the Company.

Such Secretary shall be nominated by the Chairman of the Board and appointed or removed by the Board of Directors.

Article 114 The secretary to the Company's Board of Directors shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. His primary functions shall include:

- (5) The Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other senior managements of the controlled companies as described in Clause (4) above.

Article 136

The fiduciary duty of a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company may not necessarily cease upon the conclusion of his term, and their obligations to keep the commercial secrets of the Company shall survive beyond the conclusion of his term. The duration of other obligations and duties shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, taking into account the lapse between the time when a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements of the Company leaves the office and the occurrence of the relevant event, and the situation and the circumstances under which his relation with the Company was ceased.

Article 137 The shareholders may by informed decisions at the general meeting to discharge the liability of any Director, Supervisor, General Manager and any other senior managements of the Company as a result of violation of any specific duty, except for the circumstances as specified in Article 57 hereof.

Article 138 A Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior managements of the Company who directly or indirectly has many material interests in any contracts, transactions, or arrangements executed or proposed to be executed with the Company (except for contracts of service between the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements and the Company), shall, as soon as possible, disclose to the Board of Directors, the nature and extent of his interest, regardless of whether or not such matters require the approval of the Board of Directors under the normal circumstance.

Unless the interested Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements of the Company have made such disclosure to the Board of Directors as required by the preceding paragraph of this Article, and the relevant matter has been approved by the Board of Directors at the Board meeting in which such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other senior managements have not been counted into the quorum and voted at the meeting, the Company shall be entitled to rescind such contracts, transactions, or arrangements, except as to any other party which is deemed a bona fide party without knowledge of the violation of duties on the part of such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements.

Where any connected party of any Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements of the Company possess interest in any contracts, transactions or arrangements, such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements shall also be deemed to be interested.

Article 139 In the event that, prior to the Company's initial consideration of such contracts, transactions, or arrangements referred to by the preceding Article, and a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior management of the Company has delivered a written notice to the Board of Directors, stating his interests in such future contracts, transactions, or arrangements, such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements shall be deemed to have made the disclosure as provided in the preceding Article with respect to the statement(s) contained in the notice.

Article 140 The Company shall not, in any manner, pay any taxes for its Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements.

Article 141 The Company shall not directly or indirectly provide a loan or a guarantee in connection with the provision of a loan to a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company or of the Company's holding company or any of their respective connected parties.

The first paragraph of Article 141 is not applicable to the following cases:

(1) the provision of a loan by the Company to, or a guarantee in connection with a loan to, its subsidiaries;

- (2) the provision of a loan by the Company to, or a guarantee in connection with a loan or making any other funds available to any of its Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements to pay any expenses incurred by them for the purpose of the Company or for the purpose of his performance of his duties in accordance with a service contract approved by the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) in the event that the ordinary course of the business of the Company includes the loaning of funds or the provision of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to, or provide a guarantee in connection with a loan to, the relevant Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements or their respective connected parties, provided that such loans or guarantees are on normal commercial terms.

Article 142 Any person who receives any funds from a loan which has been made by the Company in violation of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

Article 143 A guarantee for a loan which has been provided by the Company in violation of paragraph 1 of Article 141 shall not be enforceable against the Company, except with respect to the following circumstances:

- (1) the loan was provided to a connected party of any of the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements of the Company or of the Company's holding company and the provider of the loan of such funds has no knowledge of the relevant circumstances at the time of making the loan;
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 144 For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a "guarantee" shall include an undertaking or any property provided by the guarantor to secure the obligator's performance of his obligations.

Article 145 In addition to the rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations when a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements of the Company breaches his duties to the Company, the Company shall be entitled:

- (1) to require such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements to compensate for any loss sustained by the Company as a result of such breach of duty;
- (2) to rescind any contract or transaction entered into between the Company and such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements or between the Company and a third party, where such party knows or should have known that such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements representing the Company was in breach of his duty to the Company;
- (3) to require such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements to surrender the profits made as result of such breach of his duty;

- (4) to recover any amount which otherwise should have been received by the Company but were received by such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements instead, including (but not limited to) any commission;
- (5) to demand the payment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior managements on any sum which should have been received by the Company;
- (6) to go through legal proceedings to obtain orders that the assets the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior managements have obtained by violating their obligations shall belong to the Company.

Article 146 With the prior approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company shall enter into a written contract with a Director or Supervisor with respect to his remuneration. The aforementioned remuneration may include:

- (1) remuneration with respect to his service as a Director, Supervisor or senior managements of the Company;
- (2) remuneration with respect to his service as a Director, Supervisor or senior managements of any subsidiary/subsidiaries of the Company;
- (3) remuneration with respect to the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) any payment as compensation for, or in connection with loss of office or retirement from office of such Director or Supervisor.

No proceedings may be brought by a Director or Supervisor against the Company for any benefit which otherwise would have been received by him by virtue of any aforementioned matters except pursuant to any contract described above.

Article 147 Any contracts between the Company and its Directors or Supervisors with respect to their remuneration shall provide that the Directors and Supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of Shareholders' Meeting, be entitled to receive compensation or other payment with respect to his loss of office or retirement in the event that the Company is to be acquired by others. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Company shall include any of the following:

- (1) a general offer made by any person to all the shareholders;

- (1) The retaining or removal motion shall be sent (before a notice of Shareholders' Meeting is given) to the accounting firm that is proposed to be retained or to leave or the accounting firm which has left in the relevant financial year.

“Leaving” shall include leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.

- (2) In the event that the accounting firm that is proposed to leave makes written representations and requests that the Company give notice to shareholders of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations have been received too late) take the following measures:

- (i) In any aforementioned notice for making a resolution, the Company shall state the representations made by such accounting firm which is to leave;

- (ii) To attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner as provided in the Articles of Association.

- (3) In the event that the Company fails to send the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in Clause (2) above, such accounting firm may (in addition to its right to be heard) make further appeal.

- (4) A leaving accounting firm has the right to attend the following meetings:

- (i) Shareholders' Meeting at which its term would otherwise have expired;

- (ii) Shareholders' Meeting at which the said accounting firm is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
- (iii) Shareholders' Meeting which is convened as a result of the resignation of the said accounting firm.

The leaving accounting firm is entitled to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any matters with respect to its capacity as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 177

Notice shall be given to the accounting firm no less than 30 days in advance should the Company decide to remove such accounting firm or not to reappoint it. Such accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations at the Shareholders' Meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its position, it shall clarify to the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting on any irregularities on the part of the Company.

An accounting firm may resign from its office by depositing a resignation notice at the Company's legal residence, which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as stated therein. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are absolutely no circumstances with respect to its resignation which it believes should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding paragraph, the Company shall, within 14 days, send a copy of the notice to the relevant competent authorities. If the notice contains any statement(s) referred to in the preceding two sub-clauses, a copy of such statement(s) shall be sent by prepaid mail to each shareholder entitled to obtain its financial reports at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains the content of sub-clause (2) above, the accounting firm may require the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary shareholders' meeting for the purpose of explaining the circumstances connected with its resignation.
